

A fosco cielo (When daylight's going)

from La Sonnambula
for Boomwhackers
(melody cues indicated, to be played with track)

Vincenzo Bellini
arranged by David O

Mysteriously ♩ = 80 3

pp

When day - light's go - ing, and night winds flow - ing, when sheet - ed light - 'ning the hea - vens bright - 'ning, when deep - mouth'd thun - der strikes us with

f pp

won - der, o'er the dis - tant hill a shade ap - pears, a shade ap - pea - (ea)rs. While clouds through

11

hea - ven by winds are dri - ven, with hair loose stream - ing, and eyes bright beam - ing, in robes, whose

A fosco cielo (When daylight's going)

15

f pp

light - ness shine forth a bright - ness, oh! _____ then it comes, oh! then it comes up - on our fears.

19

20

Then gent - ly glid - ing, on air seems rid - ing, dead si - lence reign - ing, dread hor - ror

23

f pp

pain - ing, each ob - ject cheer - ful be - com - ing fear - ful, fro - zen the ri - ver seems in i - cy fet - ters

27

28

bound. With si - lent crouch - ing, the dog ap - proach - ing with eyes so low - 'ring, their fears o'er

31

f pp

pow - - - 'ring, while birds are cry - ing, in cir - cles

37

34

mf

fly - ing, the owl calls wild - ly round, calls wild - ly round and round. With si - lent crouch - ing, the dog ap - proach - ing with eyes so low - 'ring, their fears o'er pow - - -

38

f

41

pp

- 'ring, while birds are cry - ing, in cir - cles fly - ing, the owl calls wild - ly round, calls wild - ly round and

45

ff

round. It comes now!